Kim has been in touch with three consultants and in turn has received three quotes these are from Open Plan, Natalie Cockerel and Luke Brown. Luke Brown's quote was the most favourable at £6,000 with Open Plan coming in at £10,360+vat Natalie Cockerel at £7,000. The elected consultant would do the basic conditions and also a scoping report. Kim asked the committee for a show of hands to decide who to appoint subsequently Luke Brown was chosen. Steve England mentioned a character and landscape assessment and also advised that photographs should be taken. There are to be three maps at the consultation. Map 1 to decide a cemetery map 2 to decide which green spaces are important and map 3 to decide where people wanted houses and where they didn't. Mark was to organise the graphs based on the information that was received from the recent spreadsheet that had been put into percentages which was drawn up from the questionnaires that were filled in by the residents. It was suggested by Steve that a website may be a good idea. However it was decided to ask parish if we could use theirs. The next meeting has not yet been decided.
